

Sent: 2/10/2026 5:00:10 AM
From: Police1 GrantFinder Member Update <newsletter@grantfinder.com>
To: cfrancis@ci.benicia.ca.us
Cc:
Bcc:
Importance: Normal
Subject: Is Your Department Ready for the JAG Grant?

Caution: This email originated from outside of the organization. Do not click links or open attachments unless you recognize the sender and know the content is safe.

To view in your browser, click here.

The Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant (JAG) Program hasn't been released... yet. Despite delays in the FY2025 funding announcement, all FY2025 awards are still expected—and there's potential for additional FY2026 funds to be released between May and July.

That means one thing for agencies: a tighter-than-ever turnaround for applications.

Whether your department qualifies for direct, formula-based JAG funding or applies through your State Administering Agency, preparation now is critical. One key consideration as you plan: Leonardo License Plate Readers are a strong fit within JAG's eligible funding priorities.

□□□□ Two Tracks, One Goal

JAG offers two application routes, each with distinct eligibility requirements—but shared public safety priorities. Understanding where your agency fits is the first step toward securing funding.

□□□□ We're Here to Help

Federal grants can be complex. The Lexipol GrantFinder Team is ready to support you every step of the way—from identifying eligibility to strengthening your application strategy.

□□□□ Don't Wait

Deadlines will arrive quickly, and early preparation can make the difference. Let's position Leonardo License Plate Readers as part of your next funding win.

□□□□ Get started today with expert guidance from the Lexipol GrantFinder Team—and be sure to connect with the Leonardo Team for a cost estimate to include in your grant application budget.

Learn more

